

Call for Applications

Working Turkey Seminar in Brussels, 09-11 March 2020

Take part in the

VIADUCT Master Students Seminar on EU-Turkey Relations in the field of Economic and Energy Issues

What is it about?

- The seminar will bring together a variety of students from the Social Sciences and other related disciplines, which have an interest in the EU and Turkey
- The aim is to increase knowledge about contemporary debates, difficulties and achievements between EU institutions and Turkey.
- The change for 15 master students to take part in...
 - Expert lectures on current EU-Turkey Relation and the highly relevant fields of Energy Security and Economic issues
 - A simulation game exercise
 - Visits to EU institutions and Turkish representations

How to Apply?

- Applications containing the full name, university, email address as well as discipline, transcript of record and a motivation letter (1 page max.) should be sent via email to Darius Ribbe (darius.ribbe@uni-koeln.de) by 6 February 2020.
- The cover letter should explain how the participation in the seminar would potentially improve the applicant's knowledge on the issue and what he/she expects to gain during the workshop/site visit.

Deadline: 6 February 2020

The participation fee for the seminar will amount up to 200€. Participants will be provided with accommodation. Travel costs will reimbursed up to 200€.

For further information, please contact Kim Schumann at the VIADUCT Coordination Office (kim.schumann@uni-koeln.de).