VIADUCT Research Awards

Deadline for nominations: 25 January 2019

We are delighted to announce the first round of VIADUCT Research Awards.

Objectives

The VIADUCT Research Awards aim to recognise outstanding research in the fields of EU-Turkey relations and the Future of the EU: new forms of relations between the EU-27 and neighbouring countries with a focus on innovative methods in researching this subject. The VIADUCT research Awards invite nominations of junior and senior researchers from different geographical and disciplinary backgrounds.

In 2019, Awards will be given out in the following categories:

1. Security and politics ('power')
2. Energy and economics ('resources')

Awards

Awards will be presented at the VIADUCT annual conference in March 2019.

In each category, the following prizes will be awarded:

1st Prize - €600

2nd Prize - €300

3rd Prize - €100

Nominations

Nominations of outstanding researchers in the field of EU-Turkey relations (broadly defined) are welcome. Self-nominations are also welcome. Nominations should include the name of the individual nominated and the research paper. Research awards will be given to authors only.

Nominations should be send

- for the award in the category Security and politics ('power') to Prof. Ben Tonra (ben.tonra@ucd.ie)
- for the award in the category Energy and economics ('resources') to Prof. Johannes Pollak (johannes.pollak@webster.ac.at)

The deadline for nominations is midnight on 25th January 2019.

Selection procedure

Papers will be reviewed by the chair of the selection procedure and a ranking of the top ten papers will be made. The VIADUCT Steering Group will then select the paper for award. Winners will be invited to the VIADUCT Annual Conference, which will take place in Istanbul on 20-21 March 2019.
